

UNLEASH THE POWER OF FINANCE

Stretching every budgeted dollar is a must in today's business environment. With the most flexible and competitive financing offerings in today's market, you now have the power to turn this goal into reality. Take advantage of financing your technology with IGEL Capital, and you will be able to:

Manage Cash Flow

Ensure you're matching the timing of your payments with the benefits the technology is providing your organization.

Bundle Your Total Solution

Hardware, software, support, and services can be combined into one convenient monthly payment.

Conserve Capital

Use your cash for other strategic, better returning investments.

Increase Purchasing Power

Through an extended payment option, you get the solution you need despite budget limitations.

Avoid Technological Obsolescence

Refresh to new technology that matches your future business needs, while avoiding expensive support renewals.

Track & Manage Your Assets

Our proprietary asset management system allows you to track your assets, leases and maintenance contracts.

Customize to Your Needs

IGEL Capital provides a variety of traditional and customized financing solutions to meet your organization's needs.

No Financial Surprises

We are dedicated to providing a financial solution that reduces the total cost of ownership of your technology. You can count on our lease documentation to be consistent, fully disclosed and financially transparent. At IGEL Capital, we have nothing to hide.

Having IGEL Capital finance your technology is the best way to take full advantage of your technology, minimize costs and conserve your operating capital for day-to-day business needs.
